Chris McDonald, Vice President, Specialty Lines, Canada East (Ontario, Quebec, Atlantic Canada), Markel Canada

Chris McDonald joined Markel Canada in October 2018 as a senior underwriter, bringing over 15 years of underwriting experience to his role. Since then, he has progressed to his current role of VP, specialty lines, managing a national team and providing leadership to the entire professional and financial risks team. Chris has a deep and technical understanding of professional and management liability and has helped develop products in emerging industries, including cyber and fintech.

Prior to his role at Markel, Chris began his insurance career at Encon (now Victor) where his roles progressed from underwriting to managing various divisions within their professional and management risks department. A team player, Chris is generous with helping develop his team and brings positivity to all his endeavors both internally and with Markel's national broker networks. His certifications include RIBO, CRM and RPLU.
